

Gays and Grays: The Story of the Gay Community at Most Holy Redeemer Catholic Parish

PUBLIC LECTURE BY:

Fr. Donal Godfrey, SJ
Friday, November 30, 2007
2:00-3:30 pm
Faculty Dining Room, University Center Cafeteria
University of San Francisco
Coffee and afternoon snacks will be served.

Fr. Donal Godfrey, SJ is the executive director of University Ministry at USF. He is the author of Gays and Grays (Lexington Books, 2007) which chronicles the rise - and almost fall - of Most Holy Redeemer Catholic parish in the Castro district of San Francisco. The book tells the incredible story of how the women and men, clergy and laity, young and old of the parish dealt with the AIDS crisis literally on their doorstep and created one of the most vibrant, inclusive and faith-filled parish communities in the country. Fr. Godfrey is a Jesuit priest and Irish attorney. He has a doctorate in ministry from the Church Divinity School of the Pacific in Berkeley, CA.

Sponsored by the USF Lane Center for Catholic Studies and Social Thought
www.usfca.edu/lanecenter | 415-422-5200 | lanecenter@usfca.edu